

Thank you for applying to participate in Glenpool's BlackGold Days celebration. We understand and appreciate the hard work involved with being a vendor, and will try to accommodate you in every way possible.

After you have returned your completed application, you will receive a status and/or informational letter. If approved, you will be given a festival packet at the Glenpool Chamber of Commerce table in the festival pavilion upon arrival. The packet will include all details needed for setup. Please supply the chamber with a valid email address, as this is the preferred form of communication.

Don't hesitate to contact the chamber office with questions or concerns. We look forward to working with you and wish you a successful year.
